I. INTRODUCTION

A. COMPANY BACKGROUND

Based in Washington, D.C., ACDI/VOCA is a nonprofit international development organization that delivers technical and management assistance in agribusiness, financial services, enterprise development, community development and food security in order to promote broad-based economic growth and vibrant civil society. For more information, go to www.acdivoca.org.

B. PROGRAM BACKGROUND

ACDI/VOCA is interested in pursuing USDA FY 24 Food for Progress proposals for the country of Tanzania. ACDI/VOCA would like to engage an independent monetization sales agent (Sales Agent) to assist in the development of the market analysis and monetization plan for the proposals and carry out the monetization sales if the proposal is successful.

II. PURPOSE

To complete a market analysis and monetization plan for the sale of commodities in support of Food for Progress activities in the country of Tanzania on behalf of ACDI/VOCA. The market analysis will address the Bellmon Determination requirements: disincentive analysis; assessment of the feasibility of the monetization (with respect to target amounts, market structure and price analysis); and an assessment of port, storage, and transport facilities. The market analysis will also include the possible impact of export bans or price ceilings.

The specific objectives of this analysis are to determine:

- the type and amount of commodity to be monetized with approximate sales and proceeds pipeline; identification of appropriate specifications and packaging requirements
- appropriate sales methodology and recommended sales locations
- identification of potential buyers in-country
- logistics and storage system for sale of commodity
- issues surrounding physical importation of commodity (i.e., port facilities) as well as taxation/customs charges
- identification of potential risks to ACDI/VOCA of importing identified commodity
- obtain appropriate host government officials input on monetization.

A. SCOPE OF WORK

ACDI/VOCA is interested in hiring a Sales Agent to conduct the market assessment and monetization plan for appropriate commodities in the country of Tanzania. If the proposal is successful and USDA makes an award to ACDI/VOCA, the Sales Agent would act as the monetization sales agent for all planned sales under the program.

a. Anticipated Tasks and Activities:

Proposal Development

- i. Update/revise the most recent demand/supply analysis conducted of major crops in the selected country/countries using the last five years of available data, taking into account opening stock balances for each year, local production and processing, imports (broken into commercial imports and food aid), consumption (human and animal feed) and closing stocks. Note consumption habits of local population and political sensitivities towards commodities. If possible, project the demand/supply situation for the period 2024/2025. Provide information on the crop cycles for determining the appropriate import period.
- ii. Analyze current prices vs. normal price trends for major crops in selected country/countries.

- iii. Meet with appropriate agencies and organizations to determine price levels, commodities, target areas, and sales methodology, including but not limited to: Ministry of Agriculture; FAO; WFP; USDA Ag Attache, relevant U.S. based commodity groups (example US Wheat Associates, U.S. Rice). Potential buyers (for example large commodity importers) should also be sought out for meetings. These potential buyers should be noted in the proposal.
- iv. Recommend commodity specifications as well as packaging.
- v. Determine if there are any GMO issues.
- vi. Recommend the best timing for sales when the highest prices will be paid for the commodity. Provide a sales pipeline with recommended amounts and schedules. Include date of delivery to U.S. port. Provide estimates as to potential proceeds per MT.
- vii. Determine the appropriate sales methodology. Speak with potential buyers and traders and government officials. Ensure the ability to maximize private sector participation. Describe how normal commercial markets will not be adversely affected.
- viii. Recommend storage, transportation, and other logistics systems necessary to implement sales. Provide a description of the discharge port infrastructure including offloading and storage capacity, modes of transport used to deliver goods from the port, port management companies, security, capacity for commodity testing and include capacity to manage spoiled commodities. Note times during the year when the port might become congested due to the seasonality of key imports and/or exports.
- ix. Identify and recommend actions to prevent any potential disincentive effects to local production and marketing of the commodity to be imported as food aid, and any possible cross-price effects on substitute commodities.
- x. Advise ACDI/VOCA on all legal requirements pertaining to selling and importing commodities in the selected country/countries.
- xi. Advise and recommend the most suitable financial payment mechanism (letter of credit, bank guarantee, etc.).

B. DELIVERABLES

Proposal development stage:

1. Provide a report of findings & recommendations for the proposed monetization of USDA sourced commodities in the selected country/countries that can be incorporated into the proposal submission based on USDA proposal requirements.

Post-award in the event ACDI/VOCA wins an award:

1. Prepare a monetization plan for submission to USDA based on their requirements.
2. Prepare tender documents and draft sales agreement based on the laws of the country of importation, USDA requirements and ACDI/VOCA legal requirements. ACDI/VOCA will be responsible for submitting tender documents and draft sales agreements to USDA for approval. Any revisions based on USDA guidance will be the responsibility of the Sales Agent. Upon USDA approval of tender documents and sales agreement, Sales Agent will publish the tender announcement in most appropriate local media outlets. Copies of the tender announcement should be sent to ACDI/VOCA for its files. Sales Agent will follow up with potential buyers to ensure they are aware of the tender. Sales Agent will organize any pre-tender meetings with interested buyers as necessary.
3. Organize submission of tenders whether through a physical location or electronically.
4. Analyze the submitted tenders and make recommendations based on established criteria, including: (1) price; (2) buyer's ability to purchase the entire cargo; (3) buyer's ability to demonstrate a guaranteed means of payment; and (4) ability to accept ACDI/VOCA's contractual terms and conditions in its entirety. Note: ACDI/VOCA, with approval from USDA, will hold the ultimate decision to sell or not to sell. Upon approval by both buyer and ACDI/VOCA of final sales agreement, ACDI/VOCA will submit the final sales agreement to USDA for approval. Upon USDA approval, ACDI/VOCA will organize the Call Forward submission with its Freight Forwarder.

5. Ensure payment terms per the contract are strictly followed and that full payment for the commodity is remitted directly to ACDI/VOCA's nominated account. Forward all original sales records and documents to ACDI/VOCA upon completion of the monetization.
6. Endeavor to avoid any additional costs related to the monetization process. If, in the negotiation process, a cost must be absorbed such as labor to off-load or transport, the Consultant shall factor those costs into the commodity sales price to offset these additional expenses.
7. Consultant's offer should include all costs related to carrying out the tasks noted above, including document preparation and production, publication of tender announcement, any necessary travel, etc.

III. CONTRACT MECHANISM & TERMS OF PAYMENT

ACDI/VOCA anticipates issuing a firm-fixed price/fee purchase order to an Offeror. ACDI/VOCA will issue fixed payments based on submission and ACDI/VOCA acceptance of deliverables. Once an award is issued, it will include a fixed price payment schedule with deliverables specified above. A copy of the purchase order terms and conditions are attached to this RFP for informational purposes.
